Tourism ~ Vital to the economy!

Who is the Grande Prairie Regional Tourism Association?

The Grande Prairie Regional Tourism Association (GPRTA) is an ambassador for the Grande Prairie Region and is the visible voice for the industry. GPRTA is a non-profit marketing organization funded by partnership fees, memberships, marketing programs, and fundraising initiatives. The association is dedicated to increasing local business revenue by promoting the Grande Prairie area through every possible marketing avenue and is continually seeking new opportunities to showcase the region. GPRTA is a tourism destination marketing organization (DMO) working in conjunction with Travel Alberta as a Tourism Destination Region (TDR) to help promote tourism by negotiating and investing in marketing programs and partnership proposals.

Vision

The Grande Prairie Regional Tourism Association captures the pride and passion of our people, our natural settings, our diverse history, and our innovative industry. We aim to lead our members and region in offering distinct experiences to travelers and residents establishing Grande Prairie & Region as a destination.
